Friday 18th July – End of Term Trip. More information to follow once it has been confirmed but we are hoping to go to Quince Honey Farm for our end of term trip. We hope to be able to close Pre School for the day so that everyone can come and join in the fun. I will send a separate letter as soon as I hear back from the Honey Farm but please put the date in your diary.

Monday 21st July – End of Term Party and Presentation. We are inviting all Pre School children in to our party from 130pm. We are then inviting parents who have children going to school in September to come back at 240pm so we can have a short presentation for our school leavers. It will only be short as it catches me out every year, but they deserve to be celebrated.
